

The Three Little Pigs

Once upon a time, there lived three little pigs. One day, they built their own houses of straw, sticks and bricks.

The next day, a big bad wolf came to the first house. "Little pig, little pig, let me come in," he snarled.

"Not by the hair on my chinny, chin, chin, I will not let you in!" cried the first little pig.

"Then I'll huff and I'll puff and I'll blow your house down!" growled the big bad wolf. He blew the house down! The first little pig ran to the second house.

The big bad wolf came to the second house. "Little pig, little pig, let me come in," he snarled.

"Not by the hair on my chinny, chin, chin, I will not let you in!" cried the second little pig.

"Then I'll huff and I'll puff and I'll blow your house down!" growled the big bad wolf. He blew the house down! The two little pigs ran to the third house.

The big bad wolf came to the third house. "Little pig, little pig, let me come in," he snarled.

"Not by the hair on my chinny, chin, chin, I will not let you in!" cried the third little pig.

"Then I'll huff and I'll puff and I'll blow your house down!" growled the big bad wolf. He huffed and he puffed, but he could not blow it down! So he climbed down the chimney and landed in a big pot of stew. SPLASH! He jumped out and ran away. He never came back again. The three little pigs lived happily ever after in the house made of bricks.

The end.

The Three Little Pigs

Once upon a time, there lived three little pigs. One day, they decided to leave home and build houses of their own. The first little pig thought that straw would make a good house. He built the house very quickly and he was very pleased with it. The second little pig thought that sticks would make a fine house. He built the house very quickly and he was very pleased with his house too. The third little pig thought that bricks would make a strong house. It took him a long time to build the house, but he was very pleased with it.

The next day, a big bad wolf came along. He saw the first little pig in his house of straw. "Little pig, little pig, let me come in," he called.

"Not by the hair on my chinny, chin, chin, I will not let you in!" cried the first little pig.

"Then I'll huff and I'll puff and I'll blow your house down!" growled the big bad wolf. So he huffed and he puffed and he blew the house down! Terrified, the first little pig escaped and ran to join his brother in the house made of sticks.

The big bad wolf followed the little pig to the house made of sticks. "Little pig, little pig, let me come in," he snarled.

"Not by the hair on my chinny, chin, chin, I will not let you in!" shouted the second little pig.

"Then I'll huff and I'll puff and I'll blow your house down!" warned the big bad wolf. So he huffed and he puffed and he blew the house down! The two little pigs escaped and ran to join their brother in the house made of bricks.

The big bad wolf followed the little pigs to the house made of bricks. "Little pig, little pig, let me come in,” he called again.

“Not by the hair on my chinny, chin, chin, I will not let you in!” yelled the third little pig.

“Then I’ll huff and I’ll puff and I’ll blow your house down!” threatened the big bad wolf. He huffed and he puffed, but the house was too strong. He could not blow it down! This made the big bad wolf very angry. He climbed onto the roof of the house so he could crawl down the chimney. The big bad wolf was in for a big surprise! The third little pig had been cooking a big pot of stew and SPLASH! The wolf fell right into the pot! The wolf was very shocked. He jumped out of the pot and ran straight out of the house. He never came back again. The three little pigs lived happily ever after in the house made of bricks.
